This classic and invaluable practical guide to arbitration has been updated to incorporate developments and case law resulting from the 1996 Arbitration Act. Taking his lead from the experience of practising arbitrators, Cato examines the problems encountered on a day-to-day basis by professional advisers, lawyers, arbitrators, expert witnesses and parties to arbitration.

Arbitration Practice and Procedure: Interlocutory and ...

It addresses the procedure and practice of arbitration by first asserting a proposition or typical situation, followed by a hypothetical narrative: there then follows a question arising from the facts which the arbitrator poses to himself (emphasised by heavy print), followed by the analysis of the authors which appears under the title Course of Action.
