The ATI Comprehensive Exam is kinda tricky compared to the practice A&B. If your school gave you access to other ATI questions, I would practice as many as you can. At this point its all about answering NCLEX-style questions. Don't just study the "learning system RN" or the other practice assessments that you've been doing throughout nursing school. When I was in my last term "Integrations," our professor made his own ATI assessments using a different set of ATI questions that we've never ...
