The Moving Target Ross Macdonald

"The Moving Target" by Ross Macdonald is an American Crime Noir Novel published in 1949. It is the first of the "Lew Archer" series. It is set in California on the Pacific Coast. The story is clever and interesting. The writing is particularly good. There are a LOT of very descriptive passages of scenery. I like that very much.

The Moving Target (Lew Archer Series #1) by Ross Macdonald ...

Ross Macdonald channels his inner Raymond Chandler in The Moving Target with his protagonist Lew Archer coming across as a long lost, less competent and less witty cousin of Philip Marlowe. Archer is hired to find a missing millionaire who might be out on a booze binge or been kidnapped. The plot is not revolutionary but pretty strong.
