As a big fan of the Fear Street series, I like The Perfect Date a lot! There are far better books in the series, but this story was a good mystery. A year after his girlfriend was killed in a tragic sledding accident, Brady is ready to start dating again. He thinks he's found the perfect girl when he meets beautiful Rosha.

The Perfect Date

Sharon Noles aka Rosha Nolan was the main villainess of "The Perfect Date", book #37 of R.L. Stine's original Fear Street series (published on April 1, 1996). She was the girlfriend of protagonist Brady Karlin and, a year prior the book's events, Brady convinced her to sled down a steep hill with him. But during the ride, Sharon lost control and crashed through a thorn brush, killing her and leaving her beautiful face torn to shreds.

Books similar to The Perfect Date (Fear Street, #37)

My Take: The Perfect Date is one of those Fear Streets that have a plot that seems very mundane when you think about it and read it for awhile. When it gets to the last few chapters, however, it gets absolutely bonkers!
